WordsWorth Marketplace

At WordsWorth Marketplace, any reader will be able to feel right at home through our unparalleled luxury. With the gourmet coffee served at our indoor cafes, fatigue will not impact our readers! Besides providing the community with the benefits and power of literacy, the community can provide for the culture with open band nights and various artistic and gaming workshops. By keeping personal rental spaces open, anyone can be free to advance their cultural knowledge.

Questions considered:

- 1) Will books in an established series (i.e Harry Potter) be sold in one collection, individually, or both?
- 2) Would revised/exclusive editions of classical texts be given priority over older/less authoritative versions during sales?
- 3) What priority should bookstore events be scheduled in order to maximize potential customer turnout?
- 4) For workshop-type events, will customers be expected to bring in materials, or will designated materials be provided?

- 5) Where will events such as open band nights and artistic workshops be advertised?
- 6) What kinds of drinks and pastries will be sold at the cafe?
- 7) Does the bookstore have a large selection of new releases?
- 8) Will there be a membership for customers to join and get discounts, special events, ect?
- 9) Will the bookstore also have free wifi?
- 10) Will the bookstore also have an ebook and audiobook online catalog as well?

Rules of the business:

- ★ Scheduled events not explicitly related to books/literacy have to occur either on weekends or work holidays to maximize turnout.
- ★ Private booth rentals need to be scheduled at least a week in advance, regardless of how many people.
- ★ All live music must be acoustic to avoid disturbing readers or people that come for the quiet atmosphere.
- ★ Book rentals must be returned in a timely manner. If they are not then the customer incurs a fine based on the amount of time since the return date.
- ★ Payment at the cafe and bookstore is only accepted in Credit/Debit Card or Cash. No checks, crypto, ect.
- ★ Only one discount can be applied at a time, no stacking.
- ★ When customers buy more than one book in a series, an automatic 10 percent discount is to be applied.

- ★ When new editions of textbooks and periodicals are in stock, any remaining stock of prior editions/publications gets an automatic 25 percent price reduction.
- ★ A digital or audio-based version of a given printed work cannot be priced above a physical copy.
- ★ Sales can be done with anyone, but Members can apply their member's ID to add the total sales price to their total purchase volume.
- ★ Members get 10% off every sale.
- ★ Books have a maximum return window of 14 days, excluding the day of purchase. However, other items with higher return windows can be done in one Sale.
- ★ Every employee must be given a title and can have only one title at a time, but can be promoted/assigned over time.
